Environmental Psychology Principles And Practice
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's naughtiness and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. Aunt Polly tells Tom that he will be skipped school that afternoon and must improve his behavior. Tom promises to behave better. Aunt Polly is satisfied. Tom goes out to play. He meets Huckleberry Finn, who has been Skipper, Mark. Tom has warned the shantyboat to disguise his identity by wearing a beaver hat and clothes that look like a sailor.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Sam passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white ally," a kind of marble. Sam almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chased him off, leaving Tom alone with his任务.

After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects calmly on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time with a face all dirty and a knot of dirt on his forehead, saying his schoolmaster was out of school that afternoon and went to St. Petersburg in search of gold. Tom had skipped school that afternoon and went instead to Tom Sawyer’s Island, where he found gold. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom and the new arrival of gold incomes his mother to a whirl of worry, while Tom’s father is overjoyed and agitated.

Tom goes out of the house in a state of high excitement and eventually chases the newcomer all the way home.
