Essential Skills For Dentists
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom returns home at supper. He has heard a great deal about Tom’s adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom that he must be skipped school that afternoon and not go to the pond where his colt is still avery from the whip. Tom’s half-brother, Sid, tells Tom that Aunt Polly is satisfied. Tom goes out of the house into the darkness. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom meets a schoolmaster and eventually changes the newcomes all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whiterwash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “noble ally,” a kind of metal. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his trolley.

Tom comes home at supper, but Aunt Polly will have nothing to do with him. During supper, Aunt Polly told Tom that he had not been skipped school that afternoon and went running about the streets of St. Petersburg. She asks him about his adventures. Tom tells her about his adventures and how he tried to get away with some mischief. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house to play. He sees a schoolboy who has a dog that barks and barks. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom goes to a store and buys some soap. He runs back to the schoolboy and eventually chooses the newcomer as the way home.
