Harry Potter Jim Kay
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whippin'. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischievous and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime and tells his aunt about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly decides that Tom must be whipped for skipping school that afternoon and every previous time. His clothes are ripped and dirty and she sends him to the old field behind the house to be whipped. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom meets a new arrival, a young boy named Benjy Mark. Benjy has sworn the shanty to disguise himself to impress his schoolmate.

Tom goes out of the house and meets a young boy named Sam Shanks, who is selling whistling. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom meets a young boy named Benjy Mark. Benjy has sworn the shanty to disguise himself to impress his schoolmate.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his soiled clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whiten the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of turtle. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
