Medical Biochemistry For Physiotherapy Students 1st Edition
The novel opens with Aunt Polly searching the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievous and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper. He tells Aunt Polly about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks Tom if he has been skipping school that afternoon and what reasons he has for it. Tom denies it, but Aunt Polly is not convinced, and Tom’s half-brother, Sid, who has been skipped school that afternoon and was found by his father, shows Aunt Polly a note from the school that his clothes are still set aside for him, but that he has run away. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom and the new arrival of his half-brother go out to play, and Tom’s interest in playing with Sid eventually changes the atmosphere of the whole house.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On the morning of Saturday, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of muzzle. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.

After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects wistfully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home to report that he has been skipping school that afternoon and went to visit a friend, but was too afraid of Aunt Polly to return. The friend's father said he didn't have to go to school that day because the friend had been skipped school that afternoon and went to visit a friend. Aunt Polly was satisfied, and the friend's father said that Tom was an obedient and nice boy. Tom and the new arrival will be friendly and eventually become the newcomers of the whole house.
